

Alaska Association of Paralegals
Presents its September, 2019 CLE

Agenda: Please join us Thursday, September 12, 2019, at noon at the Bristol Bay Native Corp., 111 West 16th Avenue in Anchorage. The format is brown bag. This month's topic is:

He Who Sleeps on His Rights is Not Entitled to Equity

Topic: The presentation will cover the development of the Court of Equity. The differences between remedies at law and remedies in equity.

Guest Speaker: Joseph Levesque graduated from Seattle University School of Law in 1986 and began working as a prosecutor for the Alaska District Attorney's office in Kenai. Mr. Levesque served as Borough Attorney at the North Slope Borough and has since focused his practice representing Alaskan municipalities.

Having lived and represented parties in some of Alaska's largest, smallest, and most remote communities, Mr. Levesque understands that the needs of his clients differ in as many ways as Alaska's people. Because of this Levesque Law Group, LLC is dedicated to ensuring that each of its clients' particular interests always guide the scope of their representation.

Reservations: The CLE is from noon to 1:00 P.M. on Thursday, September 12, 2019, at the Bristol Bay Native Corporation at 111 West 16th Avenue. Cost is $10 for AAP members and $15 for non-members and guests. Please RSVP by noon Wednesday, September 11th, by logging onto the AAP Website at www.alaskaparalegals.org.
